AMERICAN NATIONAL GOVERNMENT

Florida State University

POS 1041 Spring, 2015 Office Hours, Tuesday and Friday 11:00 a.m. – Noon, or by appointment Professor Brad T. Gomez Office: Bellamy 536 E-mail: bgomez@fsu.edu Telephone: 644-7303

Government and politics touches every aspect of our lives. Yet many—indeed most—Americans lack even the most basic knowledge of how our national government operates. The goal of this course is to provide you with an understanding of the fundamental of American government and politics as well as some of the analytical tools that you will need to acquire a more sophisticated understanding of political institutions and behavior. This course is designed to introduce the student to the contemporary study of the institutions and processes of American national government. Students will be expected to develop an understanding of American government and convey this understanding through class participation, written assignments, and four examinations. In order to stimulate class discussion and learning, you will be expected to complete the assigned readings before class sessions.

REQUIREMENTS:

Texts: The following text has been ordered through the FSU Bookstore and is required for this course:

Kernell, Samuel, Gary C. Jacobson, Thad Kousser, and Lynn Vavreck. 2013. The Logic of American Politics, 6th ed. Washington, D.C.: Congressional Quarterly Press. (KJKV)

Selected readings will be placed and can be downloaded from the class Blackboard site. These additional readings are also required.

Assignments and Grading:

- 1) Students are to read all required material before the class session for which they are assigned.
- 2) Examinations: Three section exams (20% each) and final exam (25%)
- 3) Participation: Class Attendance and 10 Blackboard Writing Assignments (15%)

Your final grade will be determined by the following scale:

	B+=89-88	C+ = 79 - 78	D+=69-68
A = 100 - 93	B = 87 - 83	C = 77 - 73	D = 67 - 63	F = 59 - 0
A = 92 - 90	B- = 82 - 80	C - = 72 - 70	D- = 62 - 60

Examinations

Examinations are closed book and may consist of some combination of objective, short answer, or essay questions. The unit examinations will cover all the material from lectures, class discussions, and readings on the unit being tested. The final exam, which will be given during the examination period scheduled by the university, will be cumulative (covering lectures, class discussions, and readings from the entire semester).

Blackboard Writing Assignments

There will be 10 section assignments over the course of the semester. Each of these assignments corresponds to a chapter in your textbook (chapters 2-12, omitting chapters 8, 13, and 14), and each is due no later than two (2) days after we conclude our discussion of the corresponding chapter. For example, if we conclude our discussion of Congress on a Monday, you have until Wednesday evening at 11:59 p.m. to complete the assignment. Late assignments will NOT be accepted! Each of the section assignments will be Internet-based. For each topic, visit a few (or all) of the Internet sites that I have provided, look at some of the information on them, and learn more about how that theory, political group, or governmental agency works. A well written, single paragraph answer to each of the questions will suffice. All assignments will be submitted via Blackboard.

The section assignments will count toward your class participation grade, which is 15% of your final class grade. The more assignments you complete, the higher your grade!

Class Attendance

Students are expected to attend every class. Absences from class due to illness and participation in formally sanctioned University events will only be excused with sufficient (e.g., University Health Services Excuse Forms) documentation. Documentation must be provided within 48 hours of the absence. Students who cannot physically provide such documentation within the 48-hour period (due to illness etc.) must do so as soon as possible and must include sufficient documentation supporting the claim that they could not physically deliver the original documentation in the 48-hour period. The instructor reserves the right to determine what is considered "sufficient documentation." Class attendance sheets will be passed out during class. If any student is determined to be misrepresenting either their or someone else's attendance in class, all students involved in such misrepresentation shall receive a zero for the semester participation and attendance grade.

Note: The General Bulletin states that "a student reported for excessive absence in any course may be required by the academic dean to drop the course with the grade of 'F'."

LATE ASSIGNMENTS AND MISSED EXAMS

Late assignments will not be accepted unless the student is explicitly granted permission prior to the completion date. Please inform the instructor as soon as possible if you find it necessary to turn in an assignment late.

Missed exams will receive a grade of zero except in cases of demonstrated, appropriate, and verifiable emergencies or tragedies or where the student has prior approval from the instructor. In cases of missed exams excused by the instructor, a makeup exam will be rescheduled at the convenience of the instructor.

POLICY ON ACADEMIC HONESTY

The Florida State University Academic Honor Policy outlines the University's expectations for the integrity of students' academic work, the procedures for resolving alleged violations of those expectations, and the rights and responsibilities of students and faculty members throughout the process. Students are responsible for reading the Academic Honor Policy and for living up to their pledge to "... be honest and truthful and... [to] strive for personal and institutional integrity at Florida State University." (FSU Academic Honor Policy, found at http://dof.fsu.edu/honorpolicy.htm.)

STUDENTS WITH DISABILITIES

Students with disabilities needing academic accommodation should: (1) register with and provide documentation to the Student Disability Resource Center; (2) bring a letter to the instructor indicating the need for accommodation and what type. This should be done during the first week of class. For more information services available to FSU students with disabilities, contact the Student Disability Resource Center, 874 Traditions Way, 108 Student Services Bldg., 850-644-9566, or on the web at http://www.disabilitycenter.fsu.edu/

LIBERAL STUDIES PROGRAM

The Liberal Studies Program at Florida State University has been designed to provide a perspective on the qualities, accomplishments, and aspirations of human beings, the past and present civilizations we have created, and the natural and technological world we inhabit. This course has been approved as meeting the requirements for Liberal Studies Area III, History and Social Science, and in combination with your other Liberal Studies courses, provides an important foundation for your lifelong quest for knowledge.

OFFICE HOURS AND AVAILABILITY

Undoubtedly, some of you will find the material covered in this class difficult to grasp. The readings, lectures, discussions, and assignments have been compiled to make understanding American politics an easier (and interesting) task. However, if at any time you feel confused by the material, please feel free to seek my help during office hours or by appointment.
