TRAVEL INFORMATION

ARRIVING

If arriving by air, you will want to fly into the Tallahassee Airport (TLH). Connections are available on Delta, US Air, and other carriers through the hubs in Atlanta, Charlotte NC, Memphis, and other cities that serve both domestic and international flights. For those coming from England and Germany, Delta offers good connections through Atlanta, and US Air through Charlotte. There are other airports available (Atlanta is 5 hours away; Orlando 4.5 hours; Jacksonville FL 3 hours; Tampa 5 hours) if you are traveling prior to or following the symposium in those areas, but you would have to rent a car to get here from there, or take a flight to Tallahassee from there, as there is not easy rail or bus transport. Tallahassee is directly on US Interstate Highway I-10.
