

JENNIFER LISA KOSLOW

Assistant Professor
Director, Historical Administration and Public History Program
409 Bellamy Building
Tallahassee, FL 32306-2200
Fax 850.644.6402
jkoslow@fsu.edu

EDUCATION

Ph.D., University of California, Los Angeles, 2001
M.A., United States History, University of California, Los Angeles, 1996
B.A., with honors, University of Wisconsin, Madison, 1992

AWARDS AND FELLOWSHIPS

Florida State University, First Year Assistant Professor Award, 2006
National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health, Publication Grant, 2004-05
American Historical Association, Beveridge Research Grant, 2004
The Huntington Library, John Randolph Haynes and Dora Haynes Foundation Short-Term Fellowship, 2004
The Historical Society of Southern California, Haynes Research Grant, 2003
UCLA College of Letters and Science, Teaching Fellow, 2000-2001
UCLA History Department, Teaching Fellow, 1999-2000
UCLA Center for the Study of Women, Travel Grant, 1998
UCLA History Department, Summer Research Grant, 1997 and 1998

PUBLICATIONS

Cultivating Health: Los Angeles Women and Public Health Reform, New Brunswick: Rutgers University Press, 2009.

“Beyond Sunshine and Noir: Critiquing Los Angeles in the Twenty-First Century,” The Journal of Urban History Volume 35, no. 2 (2009): 314-323.

“Putting it to a Vote: The Provision of Pure Milk in Progressive Era Los Angeles,” The Journal of the Gilded Age and Progressive Era Volume 3, no. 2 (2004): 111-144.

“Delivering the City’s Children: Municipal Programs and Midwifery in Los Angeles,” Canadian Bulletin of Medical History Volume 19, no 2 (2002): 399-430.

“Public Health,” Encyclopedia of Chicago (Chicago: University of Chicago Press, 2004): 657-9.

“Rachel Carson,” “Dorothea Dix,” “Alice Hamilton,” “Oliver Wendell Holmes,” “Alphonse Laveran,” “Antoni van Leeuwenhoek,” “Florence Nightingale,” “Howard Ricketts,” “Benjamin Rush,” and “Lemuel Shattuck” Encyclopedia of Public Health (New York: Macmillan Reference, 2002).

Review of Kevin Starr, Coast of Dreams: California on the Edge, 1990-2003 (New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 2004) in Southern California Quarterly Volume 87, no 2 (2005): 212-215.

Review of Timothy B. Smith, The Golden Age of Battlefield Preservation: The Decade of the 1890s and the Establishment of America’s First Five Military Parks forthcoming in Louisiana History.

“A Brief History of Public Health in Los Angeles County,” ed. Lester Breslow, Report of Review of Public Health Programs and Services of the Los Angeles County Department of Health Services (Los Angeles: UCLA School of Public Health, Technical Assistance Group, 1997).

PRESENTATIONS

- “Sharing Authority with Undergraduate Students,” National Council on Public History, Providence, Rhode Island, April 2009.
- “Using the Web to Connect Campus and Community,” Active History: History for the Future, co-sponsored by the University of Toronto and York University, Toronto, Canada, September, 2008.
- “Historic Preservation and Public History,” School of Architecture, Florida Agricultural and Mechanical University, Fall 2006 and Fall 2007.
- “Technology and Public Health: The Suppression of Venereal Disease in Los Angeles,” presented at the Organization of American Historians, San Francisco, March/April 2005
- “Working a Way out of Quarantine: Controlling Pneumonic Plague and Smallpox in Los Angeles,” presented at the Social Science History Association, Chicago, November 2004
- “Quarantining Crimes Against Chastity and Family: Venereal Disease Control in Early Twentieth Century Los Angeles,” presented at the Urban History Association, Milwaukee, October 2004
- Commentator, “Gender and Identity in Urban Reform,” Urban History Association, Milwaukee, October 2004
- “‘Aside from Imbibing A Bit She Was a Respectable Woman’: Resisting Venereal Disease Programs in Los Angeles in the Era of World War I,” presented at “Women, Health, and Representation: An Interdisciplinary Conference” sponsored by the Maine Women Writers Collection of the University of New England, Portland, June 2004
- “The Politics of Pure Milk in Progressive Era Los Angeles” presented at the American Historical Association, Washington D.C., January 2004
- “Blurring the Lines Between Public and Private: Public Health Nursing in Progressive Era Los Angeles” presented at the American Association for the History of Nursing, Milwaukee, September 2003
- “Private or Public?: The Los Angeles College Settlement’s District Nursing Program” presented at the Western Association of Women Historians Conference, Berkeley, June 2003
- “All the Amenities of a Midwife: The Los Angeles Division of Obstetrics,” presented at the Berkshire Conference of Women Historians, Storrs, University of Connecticut, June 2002
- “Adapting Eastern Strategies to Western Space: Public Health Reform in Los Angeles,” presented at the Western History Association, San Diego, October 2001
- “Delivering the City’s Children: The Los Angeles Municipal Program and Japanese Midwifery,” presented at the American Association for the History of Medicine, Bethesda, May 2000
- “Put the Baby Above the Cow: The Failure to Guarantee Pure Milk in Early 20th-Century Los Angeles,” presented at the West Coast Network in History of the Health Sciences, Huntington Library, March 2000

“Los Angeles by. . . Plague: Presenting an Alternative Narrative Using Hypermedia,” presented at the Pacific Coast Branch Meeting of the American Historical Association, Portland, August 1997

ACADEMIC EMPLOYMENT

Assistant Professor: Florida State University, Spring 2006 -

Director, Historical Administration and Public History Program

Assistant Director: Dr. William M. Scholl Center for Family and Community History,

The Newberry Library, Chicago, Illinois, June 2002 to December 2005

Lecturer: Roosevelt University, Chicago, IL, Fall 2004

“Making Modern America, 1880-1929”

Scripps College, Claremont, CA, Spring 2002

“The History of the Politics of Birth Control” and “The American 1960s”

California State University, Long Beach, 2001-2002

“United States History 1877-1920,” “The Urbanization of Modern America” & “California History”

UCLA Extension, Winter 2002: “The History of Los Angeles”

University of California, Los Angeles, Summer 2001

“California History” and “The History of Los Angeles”

Instructional Computing Coordinator: History Department, UCLA, 1996-1997 and 1998-1999.

I worked with faculty from all fields in the department to develop the online component of their courses according to their pedagogical preferences. I created classroom exercises and applications for courses ranging from Roman History to Modern Japanese Culture. I also designed workshops for faculty and graduate students to learn the practical as well as the theoretical applications of this new technology.

Teaching Fellow: College of Letters & Science, University of Los Angeles, 2000-2001

History Department, University of California, Los Angeles, 1999-2000

Teaching Assistant: History Department, University of California, Los Angeles, 1997-1998

PUBLIC HISTORY and TEACHER EDUCATION PROGRAMS

Exhibits

Assistant Curator, “Outspoken: Chicago’s Free Speech Tradition,” October 1, 2004 to January 15, 2005. Exhibit collaboration between the Newberry Library and the Chicago Historical Society. Funded by the Institute for Museum and Library Services (IMLS).

Curator, “Picking a President,” October 16 to November 20, 2004. Funded by the Newberry Library.

Project Historian, “The Souls of Black Folk: A Centennial Lecture Series & Exhibit at the Newberry Library on the Legacy of W.E.B. DuBois,” January to April 2003. Funded by the Illinois Humanities Council.

Project Historian, “Labor History at the Newberry” August 24 to September 7, 2002. Funded by the Newberry Library.

Programs for Teachers and Faculty

Instructor, “Using Online Primary Source Documents and Material Culture in the Survey,” Community College Workshop Series, Organization of American Historians, to be presented May 2009.

Summer Institute Faculty: Connecting with American History, Summer 2005

A U.S. Department of Education Teaching American History Grant awarded to the Chicago Public Schools.

Instructor, "The Case of Typhoid Mary: An Investigation into Progressive Era Social Regulation" March 4, 2005

The Newberry Library's Teachers' Consortium. A professional development program created in 1983 to meet the needs of teachers of Advanced Placement courses. Funded by school districts in the Chicago-Metro area.

Instructor, "Immigration Explorations: Women and Gender Issues" February 15, 2005

A NEH Faculty Humanities Workshop grant awarded to the Chicago Metro History Education Center to work with secondary schoolteachers on topics related to immigrant and ethnic history in Chicago.

Summer Institute Faculty: The Chicago History Project: A Model Professional Development Program, Summer 2004

A U.S. Department of Education Teaching American History Grant awarded to the Chicago Public Schools.

Assistant Academic Director: The Chicago History Project: A Model Professional Development Program, 2002-2005

A U.S. Department of Education Teaching American History Grant awarded to the Chicago Public Schools.

Assistant Director, National History Project, Chicago Summer Institute for Teaching Faculty. June 25 to July 19, 2002. A joint program of the National Council on Education in the Disciplines (Woodrow Wilson National Fellowship Foundation) and the Newberry Library to create a research-oriented professional development project for high school and college faculty.

"Using Hypermedia in the Classroom," lecture presented at the History Department of California State University, Los Angeles, November 1997.

Co-Coordinator: "Using the World Wide Web to Teach U.S. History: A Conference of University of California Teaching Assistants." September 21, 1996. Sponsored by the University of California, Office of the President and the History Department, UCLA.

Consulting

Consulting Historian, "Mark Twain's Mississippi Project," Northern Illinois University Libraries, 2007-2008

Consulting Historian for Learning Point Associates, Naperville, IL, September 30 to October 7, 2005

developed durable knowledge catalogue and test items based on summer institute curriculum for the Connecting with American History Project, a Teaching American History Grant awarded to the Chicago Public Schools

Consulting Historian, "Abraham Lincoln Historical Digitization Project," Northern Illinois University, 2004-2005

Consulting Historian, "Taming the Wild Prairie: A History of DeKalb County," Northern Illinois University, 2004